Five Yell Leaders Elected This Year

Recently approved by the student executive council is the issue of having five cheerleaders this year instead of four as in previous years. Although the constitution states that, "There shall be four yell leaders elected each year at a general election to be held early in the month of October," due to the circumstance of these being only five people trying out, it was decided that for this year the five persons concerned would operate on the same expense account as only four have in previous years.

Four of the cheerleaders, Anne Donnelly, Inez Elguera, Jack Olson and Gib Walsh, made up the yell leading team last year and this year their efforts will be increased by the able help of Flora Miller, an experienced hand at the art of leading cheers.

Flora is a brown-eyed brunette from Kuna, Idaho, who served as cheerleader of the high school there for three years. She is attending BJC as a home economics major and after graduating she hopes to attend Iowa State college in Ames, Iowa. As to the spirit of the cheer, she thinks that it is rather deficient, but that it can be remedied by cooperation between not only the top clubs but all the clubs in order to form a good cheering section at every game.

The cheerleaders this year will pass out mimeographed copies of the new yells at all the games. It is their desire that these copies not be torn up and thrown away but that they be saved and used.

According to Anne Donnelly, one of the returning cheerleaders, "We are very enthused and encouraged about the yell leading prospects for this year. We think that with the size and spirit of the new freshman class plus that of the sophomores, we will have one of the best cheering sections in the history of the school. We hope that the kids will start sitting and cheering together. All we need for this cheering section is cooperation."

with returning yell leaders here are a few particulars.

Anne Donnelly is a dark blond sophomore student majoring in education at Boise Junior College. She graduated from St. Paul's school for girls in Walla Walla, Washington in 1955. Last year she was selected by the football team to be homecoming queen.

The cheerleader filling out the rest of the feminine side of the team is pretty brunette Inez Elguera. She too is a sophomore majoring in education. Last year she was selected to be princess of the local Intercollegiate Knights chapter.

After graduating from Sweet Home high school in Sweet Home, Oregon, Gib Walsh chose to attend BJC as a business major. At present he is active in many campus activities and is a member of Intercollegiate Knights.

Jack Olson, also a sophomore, is majoring in engineering. He is a graduate of Boise high school and has led a great deal. He is serving as sergeant-at-arms in Phi Sigma Sigma, a campus pep and service club.

The faculty met with their student advisers during the break today for pre-suspension in general procedures designed for the welfare of the students.

An election was held by the student council on October 2nd for the purpose of filling vacancies left by withdrawal of the student body vice president and treasurer.

Newly elected officers are vice president Ron Barton and treasurer Jackie Rivett, replacing Chris Christopherson and Nancy Ballard, respectively.

Ron Barton is a graduate of Boise high. At present he is majoring in psychology which he plans to continue at San Jose State following his graduation from BJC. Further studies are in view for Mr. Barton as he anticipates a follow up major in the study at Drew University in Madison, N. J. He is a member of the French Club, International Relations club, Phi Kappa Phi, Delta Psi Omega, Intercollegiate Knights and Wesley Fellowship.

Jackie Rivett graduated from Nampa high but has been a resident of Boise since last year. Miss Rivett studies drama as a major and is a member of French Club, Delta Psi Omega and Valkyries. Upon graduation from BJC she plans to attend Idaho State college and "if I ever get out of ISC" she is looking to the Pasadena Playhouse for three years of post graduate work.

CEM ASSEMBLY, THURS., OCT. 11, FRENCHMAN'S OPINION OF AMERICA

Dr. Ian Forbes Fraser will be the guest speaker at the 1956-57 CEM assembly, sponsored by the Associated Students of Boise Junior College, on Thursday, October 11th, at 8 p.m. in the Student Union ballroom. The speaker will discuss the average Frenchman's opinion of America.

Dr. Fraser is well qualified to discuss the subject, having spent several years in France. He is a member of the American Library Association and the largest English language library on the continent. His non-governmental library, serving an international clientele, has as its main objective the promotion of a better understanding of the United States by the people of France.

Dr. Fraser will arrive in Boise early Thursday morning from Missoula, Montana. He will speak at the University of Montana. In addition to his appearance at the Boise Junior College, he will talk at the Boise Valley World Affairs Association in the Student Union ballroom, Thursday, October 11th, at 8 p.m. on the subject of "French and American Responsibility in North Africa." He will also speak to the Caldwell Kiwanis Club Thursday noon, and to the students of the College of Idaho on Friday.

IN OUR OPINION

We were sitting in the Student Union last week sipping on a tall, cool one and taking in the helter-skelter of frenzied students trying to down one "last-cuppa-coffee" before class when we suddenly became aware of something. Something very pertinent to our everyday society, yet, after observing many of the students, we began to wonder if it even prevailed here.

It would seem chivalry is not only dead but a long-forgotten quality on our campus. We aren't referring to the old standard rules of etiquette set down through the ages, but merely the little courtesies of daily life that denotes a "friend" from the run-of-the-mill crowd. We can't run with our own clique, mindful of only our own well being, all of the time.

Soon there will be a rude awakening for those referred to on campus as having a personality "like a wet dish-rag."

Holding the door for a lady or a friendly "hello" on the way to class will not only tend to make new friends and endear old ones but add to your own self confidence.

A pet peeve heard among many of the students is the way some of the fellas walk to class, three and four abreast, looking like the front line of UCLA, and forcing everyone to the grass. Give a little ground, say "hello", and make another friend.

No one likes a grouch, so why not try being polite to everyone for a week or so, show a little courtesy to faculty and students, and see what happens! You'll be surprised.

Like the sign sez in the S.U. - COURTESY IS CONTAGIOUS, SO LET'S START AN EPIDEMIC.

We understand BJC was the scene of an accident last Wednesday morning. No names given, no injuries received, but a powerful lot of glass spread over Campus Blvd. Just lucky this time fellas! Next time!!!!

There's been an aroma reminiscent of Farmer Brown's south forty around the east end of the campus lately. We came to find out they're spreading it on hard and heavy preparing for the new lawn twist Gym and baseball diamond. Should be a beauty, too, if the smell is any indication.

According to Frank Carr, campus photographer, the turnout for Les Bois pictures is way below par. During the first two days only four or five people showed up. Best to have them taken early instead of standing in line later on in the week. Deadline is October 19.

There must be a few juvenile delinquents running around loose to pull the trick we just heard of. Mr. Louis Peck, head of the art dept. at BJC, had a pencil hole poked through one of his beautiful water color paintings. And anyone seeing one of Mr. Peck's paintings knows there is much work put into each one. There is something definitely wrong when a stunt like that is pulled, especially, by people referred to as mature college students.

Notice Regarding Incompletes

Attention of students and faculty members is called to the following regulation regarding incompletes:

Incomplete may be given in cases where work has been satisfactory up to the last three weeks in the semester. Work not made up within the first half of the semester after the student returns to college automatically becomes a failure unless extension of time is granted by the faculty.

ties are being reevaluated this year as a part of the long-range plan to visit all the colleges and universities in the northwest within a period of five to six years.

The committee is composed of men from all parts of the northwest. Chairman of the committee is Dr. Grant Morrison, director of junior colleges for the state of Washington.

Members from the state of Idaho are Dr. Stevenson, dean of letters and sciences at Idaho State and Dean Kerr, formerly dean of letters and sciences at the College of Idaho, now executive coordinator for the Northwest Association of Secondary and Higher Schools.

Members from the state of Montana are Dr. Cavanaugh, president of Carroll College at Helena and Dr. Smith, dean of the school of business at Montana State College.

Other members which come from the states of Utah and Oregon, respectively, are Dr. Young of Weber college and Dr. Gillilan, dean of the school of science at Oregon State college.

The Ontario high school senior band, directed by Robert Koehnke, will be at Bronco stadium in action during the Hartnell game October 13th. The band, 43 members strong, was a homecoming part of BJC last year.

"Hotel Universe" Planned By Drama Dept. In December

Mr. William Shanweiler, head of the BJC drama department, has announced plans for the first play production of the year. It will be presented to the community and the campus some time during the early part of December.

The play "Hotel Universe" written by American playwright, Philip Barry, combines comedy, drama and fantasy. It is called by the publisher "one of the most unusual brilliant plays ever written by an American."

"Hotel Universe" was produced by the New York Theater Guild on Broadway in 1930.

Philip Barry is also author of "Animal Kingdom," and "Philadelphia Story" from which the show "High Society" was taken.

Open auditions will be held in October for all interested students.

This play will be put on in the BJC auditorium.

Political Union Holds First Meeting

Mr. Blaine Evans and Mr. Bruce Bowler spoke at the first assembly of the newly formed Political Union Thursday, October 1, 1956 in the auditorium during the break.

They advised the compact group of students and faculty members to become a part of a political party and be active in forward their special selection of club.

Outlining the mechanics of the governmental process, Mr. Evans also stated the connection between the political and governmental workings and how it progresses.

Continuing the discussion, Mr. Bowler affirmed that "to have a political union 'on campus' is highly desirable and he urged also so that the youth has the welfare of the society and therefore should join and be an active contribution to some governmental organization."

Mr. Bowler, a local attorney, is running on the Democratic ticket for the state legislature in the competition on the local ticket for Ada county or is former prosecuting attorney Mr. Blaine Evans.

David Reese, temporary chairman of the union, said the plans are going through a mock election to be held soon. He also urged those attending acquaint more people with the organization.

Anyone interested in joining a political club can contact William Evans, head of the Young Republicans meeting next Wednesday at the Oxybee Hotel or the Democrats under Mr. Wernick at the Frank Church building every Monday night at 8:00.

Instructor Hospitalized

Mrs. Vina Bushby, instructor in secretarial science and office machines at BJC, has been hospitalized the past week. She is being treated at the St. Luke's hospital.

Mrs. Bushby is expected to return from the hospital sometime this week. During her absence, Elma Miller, a former BJC instructor, is meeting her class.

Rapid Growth Is Evident At BJC

This fall Boise Junior College begins its 25th year of operation.

BJC first opened in the fall of 1932 with an approximate enrollment of 25 and a full time faculty of 10 members. The first campus was located at the present St. Margaret's Hall, dormitory for St. Luke's school of nursing.

Several members of the present faculty were on the original BJC teaching staff. These include: Elsie M. Buck, mathematics; Camilla P. Cramer, Spanish; Lucille T. Forter, voice; Ada Y. Hatch, English; Kathryn E. Mitchell, violin; Mary T. Hershey, registrar-emeritus; and President Eugene B. Chaffee.

The present faculty numbers approximately 60 with a day-time student enrollment exceeding 1000. Night school employs 20 part time instructors and has an enrollment of 600.

Shaffeld and Ben Crabbe bring home the Indian head from the game. For several seasons its come back every year since its loss. Holding it are two more good reasons its back this year.

Teens At BJC

Junior high Y-Teen fall conference was held at BJC Tuesday, October 2. The day's meeting was a training conference for school leaders in the fields of duty, membership, officers, recreation, and social page, etc.

After the afternoon the girls, given a conducted tour of campus by the Valkyries. Later the day they were guests of try students at Morrison.

The conference ended with a supper at the Elks' hall.

ANNUAL PICTURES PROGRESSING SLOWLY

Pictures for the annual, being taken on the Student Union balcony, are progressing "too slowly" according to Frank Carr, school photographer.

"Students wishing their pictures in the annual," said Carr, "are asked to cooperate with the Lea Bois staff, due to the early deadline on individual pictures."

Pictures are being taken between 9:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m., school days.

600 Enroll In Night Classes

BJC night classes began officially last week. These classes, numbering 40, were of great variety. They included square dancing, psychology, woodworking and many other diverse subjects. According to Howard Rowe, school registrar, more than 600 have enrolled. Most of these are adults, taking these courses for a variety of reasons, among which is enjoyment, working towards degrees and general education.

Night school registration will be open to BJC students until October 25. For further information contact Mr. Rowe in the general administration office.

GIRL DEBATERS BADLY NEEDED

Mr. Warren Hower, advisor of the debate team, announced that there are still openings for the debating organization and urges more girls to sign up. It is a two credit course but should a person's schedule conflict he could still be a team member. Registration for the class is being held in room 101 in the speech building.

TEACHER OF THE WEEK

By Mike Helmuth

Mr. Ward Hower was born in a log cabin on a homestead near Cowley, Wyoming, on June 18, 1921.

He graduated from Emmett, Idaho, high school in 1939.

From 1939 to 1941 he attended Lewiston State Normal school where he graduated in 1941 with a teachers certificate.

On October 1, 1941, he enlisted in the navy and was assigned to flight training at Corpus Christi, Texas. He was commissioned in the Marine corps as a fighter pilot on his 21st birthday in 1942. In December of 1945 he received his honorable discharge.

Mr. Hower graduated from Stanford university in 1947 with an AB degree and in 1949 he completed work for his LL.B. degree.

At the present time he is teaching speech classes. He is also coaching the debate team.

He has a wife, Phyllis, to whom he has been married for a year and a half. She was a ballerina with the San Francisco Civic Opera company for five years.

He plans to stay put because he has already done his share of wandering. Being back here has been like a "home coming" to him.

GI home loan activity increases, for August.

GI home loan applications and appraisal activity continued to increase slightly during August, veterans' administration announced.

The upturn in building is believed the result of easing in credit requirements and a slightly better availability of mortgage money in sections of the country.

Although the requests for appraisals and home loan applications are below the unusually high levels of 1955, GI home loan activity during 1956 has continued on an even keel, VA noted.

VA received 47,672 home loan applications in August from private lenders on behalf of veterans. This is an increase of nearly five percent, or 2,146 over July, and for the second successive month, the highest monthly total received this year.

During the year VA received appraisal requests for 66,202 proposed and existing homes, an increase of about four percent over the July total of 63,750. Of the 66,202 units, 36,518 were proposed homes and 29,684 were existing homes.

Question of the Week

Q. I am planning to sell the home I bought with a GI loan. If the buyer takes over my loan, do I remain liable in case he defaults and the loan is foreclosed?

A. Not necessarily, under a new law, you may be relieved of liability if the buyer takes over your loan. He must assume full liability on the loan; VA must approve his credit; and the loan must be current.

bridge, classical music, skiing, and governmental, political and historical novels. He meekly claims to be interested in science fiction magazines.

His opinion of the school is that "We have a live, interesting, alert, student body which offers a challenge to teachers."

Inter-Faith Council Elects New Officers

The following officers and committee members were elected during the Inter-Faith Council meeting held October 4.

Co-chairmen, John Goettsch and Sandra Compton; secretary-treasurer, JoAnn Powell; chairman of devotional committee, Maryan French; chairman of Christmas program, Sandra Pearce; chairman of firesides committee, VaLois Thrasher; chairman of publicity, JoAnn Powell.

During the meeting the council announced that Miss Ann Lawwill, Miss Boise, will lead the devotional to be held Wednesday, October 10.

BJC's battling Broncos spotted the Weber Wildcats six points in the first half then turned on the full power of its powerful attack in the second half to subdue the home team 33 to 6 in a ICAC battle at Ogden Friday night. In claiming conference victory number two, BJC beat Weber for the tenth straight time to hold onto the wooden Indian head and spoiled the Wildcat's homecoming.

Weber's only touchdown came in the first quarter of play when end Ron Pace took the ball right out of Paul Han's hands on Weber's seven yard line and rambled 93 yards to paydirt. The play before Brent Heap had fumbled and Joe Schaffield recovered. Later in the quarter the Broncos started a drive on their own six and behind the running of Han and George Kane drove to Weber's 39 but there the drive was stopped when Boise's passes failed to connect.

In the second quarter BJC drove to Weber's 30, and 15 on two different occasions but failed to penetrate the fired up purple defense.

No sooner had Boise took the kickoff in the third quarter than Han took off over his own right tackle for 66 yards and six points. Garland converted and the Broncos were never to be headed for the rest of the evening. Boise's next touchdown came when Weber quarterback Ray Schlup began to fill the air with passes and Dick Roddy picked one off and ran 70 yards to paydirt. Boise's last t.d. of the quarter came just before it ended with Han going over from six yards out, ending a drive which started on Boise's 25. Garland kicked his second PAT of the evening.

BJC's next score was set up just before the third quarter ended when center Norm Davis pounced on a Lamar Bradshaw fumble on Weber's 37. Five plays later Han scored again, this time from seven yards out. Hancock converted. The last score of the game came midway through the quarter after the Broncos had taken over on the Wildcat's 44. Five plays later Babe Andiza passed to end Wes Jones who went over for the score, the play covering 19 yards. Ken Salyer failed to convert. After a punt the Bronco hamburger squad tried to score another touchdown but the clock ran out on them on Weber's 34.

Weber collected six first downs compared to Boise's 17, gained 168 yards to BJC's 395 and completed six out of 16 passes while Boise completed two out of 14.

Doc's Dope

Even though Boise has four games to play before it takes on its loving Washington cousins from the Evergreen state there is no harm done in taking a peek at what Everett and Wenatchee have done so far on the Washington gridirons.

First lets take a look at the Trojans of Everett, a team that better call on its big brothers from Seattle come November 19. Right now the Trojans are in the middle of conference play and doing so-so. In its opening game Everett slipped past Columbia Basin 20-12 and on its next trip around were beaten soundly by Grays Harbor 35-13. Last Saturday Lower Columbia was the opponent and this coming weekend Centralia furnishes the opposition. Then comes Wenatchee, Olympic, Yakima, Boise and Shasta.

On the eastern side of the rain belt, in beautiful Wenatchee Valley, the Knights of Wenatchee JC look like they have a team to be beaten again this year. Last year Wenatchee went undefeated and ended up in the Potato Bowl where it lost to Bakersfield 33-6. Like Everett, the Knights are also in the middle of the conference race but they haven't been doing so-so. Centralia was shut out 19-0 and Columbia Basin fell 46-6. Last Saturday Olympic was played and this Saturday Yakima is scheduled followed by Everett, Grays Harbor, Lower Columbia, Camp Hanford and Boise.

Well, it looks like the national champs, Compton, are going to be hard to beat again this year as they rolled to easy victories in their opening games. The Tartars, winners of the '55 Little Rose Bowl, dumped Bakersfield 27 to 0 and Oregon Tech gave them a real battle before losing 45 to 0. In 1955 Compton beat the Owls 60-7.

Lewis Sets Plans For Intramurals

"To promote a friendly campus atmosphere for all," is intramural head Ray Lewis' philosophy on the new 1956-57 intramural program at BJC.

Mr. Lewis' plans for the male population of the student body include such sports as touch football, volleyball, table tennis, basketball, horseshoes, track, softball and tennis. These activities will be varied, with football to be offered during the month of October and volleyball in November.

The program will be run with teams compiling points for participation and winning an activity.

A point board will be kept throughout the year and at the close of all activities the points will be totaled and the team with the highest overall score will be declared the intramural champion with a trophy being awarded to that team.

All organizations and living groups (on or off campus) who are interested in entering a team in the first activity, touch football, are asked to send a representative to see Mr. Lewis in his office by Wednesday, October 10.

HARTNELL PANTHERS INVADE CONFER BRONCS SET FOR 2ND CALIF. TEAM

After two weeks on the road the battling Broncos of BJC return home this Saturday to encounter one of their toughest opponents this season in the form of the Hartnell Panthers. The visiting Californians will enter Bronco stadium with four games under their belts. Hartnell's '56 campaign against BJC then met Porterville, lost to Bakersfield 26-13 and played to last Saturday.

Hartnell, a member of the conference in northern California wound up in second place without a conference defeat with two ties, battling down Menlo to a 19-19 standstill being tied by San Jose State. Jose came within a sliver of beating BJC but losing 15-6. Next week BJC opens up its '56 conference schedule with San Jose furnishing opposition. The Panthers in four defeats last year, lost Sequoias 19-9, Fresno Compton 29-0 and Yuba the victory column. Hartnell's victories over BJC 14-13, Snow 19-14, East Costa 32-14 and Monterey. One Panther was named all-conference team, end.

With Weber and Chico the way, and a good play place, Boise steps out of conference to entertain the team. Who Hartnell will be Boise in the way of a lineup and what they will do is unknown but what are and whatever they do up to one word for the Broncos. Both teams do something in common.
